2010 ~ A Year of Milestones for API!

As we close out the year, we have so much to be grateful for at the Alice Paul Institute. In the spirit of the season, I'll take this opportunity to report on our past year through gratitude and appreciation. I am grateful for ...

- all of our generous and loyal supporters who value Alice's legacy and API's mission.
- the people of the state of New Jersey who recognized Alice's significance to the history of our state and our nation and voted her into the NJ Hall of Fame!
- author Mary Walton who recognized Alice's role in winning the passage of the 19th amendment 90 years ago and honored her with a biography.
- all of the students who passed through Paulsdale this year and left with a new found appreciation for Alice's struggle for equality and with the understanding that "one person can make a difference," and that they can too!
- the girls who participated in our leadership programs and felt inspired and empowered by the role models they studied to seek leadership roles themselves.
- the support of our funders and sponsors who make these programs and the preservation of Paulsdale possible.
- Finally, I am grateful for the board, staff and volunteers of the Alice Paul Institute who work so tirelessly to fulfill our mission, and to have been named the Executive Director of such an important organization.

With gratitude to all ~ Valerie Buickerood

Members of API's Girls Advisory Council were treated to a tour of Costume Gallery by former API board member, Ellen Ferreira, president of the company that manufactures amazing dance costumes! Thank you Ellen!

API Today By Michele Dorris, API Board Chairperson

2010 has been a rewarding and exciting year for API. We celebrated our 25th anniversary, the 90th anniversary of the 19th amendment, and the 125th anniversary of Alice's birthday. Additionally, Alice was inducted into the New Jersey Hall of Fame. The culmination of all these wonderful milestones included our Women's Equality Day Arts Festival, where over 200 guests joined us. We were fortunate to have many honored guest speakers including: Senator Robert Menendez, Congressman John Adler, State Senator Diane Allen, and author Mary Walton. Mary gave a presentation on her biography A Woman's Crusade: Alice Paul and the Battle for the Ballot. Alice certainly deserved the spotlight, especially in such a politically charged year in which many of us exercised our right to vote.

While we had many exciting events and honors, we also had a fiscally challenging year due to a reduction in grants and foundation funding. With the help of the staff, board and many of our supporters, we were able to tighten our belts to reduce costs without impacting on our programs and services. Thank you all who helped us through a challenging year!

On the board and staff front we had several changes. Nancy Mirfin, our former board chair, completed her term. Nancy's clear strategic thinking and financial knowledge helped to steer us effectively through the last three years. She has our deep appreciation for all that she has done for API. Nancy assures us that she will continue her support behind the scenes. Several new board members joined us this year: Mary Saile, Wayne Tarken, Kathy Kolesk, and Deborah Shuff. Rhonda DiMascio, API President for 10 years, left to take on a leadership role at another New Jersey non-profit. Valerie Buickerood, former API Director of Major Gifts, has taken on the role of Executive Director. We are excited about the talent of both our Board members and staff to carry out the mission of API.

Girls' Global Citizenship Alice Paul's Legacy on the World Stage

Thanks to increased media attention on global women's issues and women's effect on poverty, global girls' rights have become a hot button issue. But, what does it mean to truly think about girls' rights? How do girls in the United States today understand how they fit into

Join us on Sunday, January 16, 2011 at the Moorestown Friends School Auditorium as girls' studies expert, Emily Bent, discusses the true impact of The Girl Effect and how girls today see themselves in the global mosaic of citizenship.

For our piece in the global movement, the Alice Paul Institute will be debuting a short video of international exchange between our Girls Advisory Council and the girls of Awegys Secondary School in Kigo, Uganda.

Join us for light refreshments following the program. This event is free, but registration is required. Register by e-mail at info@alicepaul.org or call 856-231-1885 by January 14, 2011.

NJ Women's Political Caucus Event at Paulsdale

On Tuesday, November 9th, API hosted the South Jersey Chapter of the Women's Political Caucus' program, "Why Not Me, Why Not Now?" Panelists included: State Senator Barbara Buono, Assemblywoman Pamela Lampitt, Edgewater Park Committee-woman Aimee Belgard, Mt. Laurel Town Council Member Linda Bobo, and Evesham Township Board of Education Member Rosemary Bernardi. Panelists shared stories of their entry points in to elected office. The goal of the program was to inspire women to seek elected office and help correct the imbalance of female representation in state government.

Over 40 guests attended! The stories were indeed inspirational and Alice Paul would have been happy to know such discussions are taking place at Paulsdale!
