

2011 Year in Review

Fifth grade girls from four Camden Schools enjoyed 2011 GirlBlazers Summer Camp at Paulsdale in June!

Reaching the teachers at the NJEA Convention in Atlantic City

Tasting wine at A Celebration of Women in Wine

API Annual Meeting
Girls' Global Citizenship

Fireside Chat
Writing Alice

Poetry on the Porch

2011 Alice Paul Equality Awards

Share Your Voice:
A Public Speaking Workshop

Girls' Advisory Council Fundraiser
Yoga & Zumba on the Porch

A Celebration of Women in Wine

2011 Women's Equality Day
The 2012 Project: Don't Get Mad, Get Elected

Remembering the Night of Terror

Alice Paul, CEO Speaker Series

Meeting Alice

GirlBlazers Camp

Lead-A-Way

Alice Paul: Through the Lens of Leadership

Paulsdale Tours

2011 Women's Equality Day with NJ Speaker, Sheila Oliver and CAWP Director, Debbie Walsh to present The 2012 Project

Above: Gov. Christie at Paulsdale to sign Appropriations Bill designating $10 mil. to historic preservation. API received a $20,000 project grant.

Below: GAC girls preparing for the API Holiday Open House

Below: API in the community - at the 2011 Mt. Laurel Fall Festival.

Above: Girls participating in public speaking workshop.

Below: GAC fundraiser: Yoga and Zumba at Paulsdale.

API Ex. Director, Valerie Buickerood with Rep. Carolyn Maloney (D-NY) at the Capitol. Rep. Maloney held a press conference to re-introduce the ERA in June!

"The visit to the Alice Paul house was simply amazing! Learning about her many accomplishments inspired me. It proved to me that anything is possible and to always strive for greatness."
~Jilisa McCullough, Masterman H.S.

2011 Year in Review

Alice Paul receives the 2011 Evangelina Menendez Trailblazer Award!

Girls from six schools participated in API's new leadership program Alice Paul: Through the Lens of Leadership. Below: Girls Matter Club of Williamstown Middle School

GAC members Amy Joaquim and Devon Hartsough served on a panel at the Nat'l Women's Studies Assoc. Conference in Atlanta. Pictured here touring the CNN Studio during their visit.

Above: 2011 Alice Paul Equality Award Honorees.

From left—Standing: Barbara Lee, Esq., N.J. Sen. Diane Allen, Angela Snyder, Lisa Kaado. Seated: Lynn Elsenhans, Mindy Holman, Myra Terry

Below: (GAC) member Keyanna Wigglesworth speaking at the Awards.

"I liked getting over my fear of public speaking" Lead-A-Way participant, St. Joe's

Above: API staff from left—Debra Hojsak, Dana Dabek, Valerie Buickerood and Kris Myers

Below—cast and director of the new play about Alice Paul, Take What is Yours. API collaborated with The New Century Trust and the Pennsylvania Historical Society to bring the show to Philadelphia for Remembering the Night of Terror.

Teaching about Shirley Chisholm during a Lead-A-Way presentation. Eighth grade girls from Burlington and Gloucester County were impacted by Lead-A-Way in 2011.

Meeting Alice Program
Fourth grades students from Mt. Laurel (above) and Girl Scout Troop 21517 (below) visit Paulsdale

